

Leslie Excell

President, Designer, Intentional Creative

About

Leslie Excell is the President of Excell In Design Group, known for her blend of creativity, passion, and collaborative leadership. With an openness to new ideas and fresh perspectives, she leads her team in supporting and elevating world-class interior designers—creating an environment where artistry, precision, and partnership come together seamlessly.

Excell In Design Group was built on design, the flow of energy, creativity, and reliability. Co-creating with designers – window coverings, shades, valances, and custom bedding, upholstered walls, ceilings, and headboards. Rooted in South Florida, we proudly serve clients across the United States and internationally, delivering elevated craftsmanship wherever exceptional design lives.
